CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE KISHORE KUMAR MANDAL
ORAL ORDER

2 20-01-2016 Heard counsel for the petitioner and the State.

The application seeks review of the order dated 28.08.2015 passed in C.W.J.C. No. 17808 of 2010. Precisely, two reasons were assigned for not invoking the writ jurisdiction of the Court. The stand of the respondents in the counter affidavit was noticed and thereafter it was held that since the disputed questions of facts are involved, it shall not be an appropriate exercise of jurisdiction.

Counsel for the petitioner states that the documents placed along with the writ petitioner in support of the title/possession was subsequently corrected by the respondent-State vide Annexure-1 of the review petition. This Court therefore committed error in considering the stand of the State in the light of the facts disclosed in the counter affidavit.

As noticed above, the writ petition was dismissed setting out two reasons. The another reason still survives. In the garb of review, the Court would not permit the petitioner to get the matter re-heard on merit.

Considering the narrow confines of the jurisdiction and the aforesaid facts, this Court is not inclined to allow the application.

Accordingly, the review application is dismissed.
