CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR

ORAL ORDER

5 17-10-2016 At the very outset, Sri Shashi Bhusan Kumar Manglam, learned counsel for the petitioner, in presence of learned AC to AAG No. 12 as well as Sri Rajesh Prasad

Chaudhary, learned counsel for the respondent no. 1 to 5 submits that so far relief no. (I) is concerned, the writ petition has now become infructuous, however, he makes a prayer for disposal of the present writ petition with indication that if petitioner feels that any grievance still exists, he would be at liberty to approach the authority concerned.

The prayer is allowed.

The writ petition stands disposed of with liberty as indicated above.
