CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

2 29-11-2016 Heard Sri Ram Hirday Prasad, learned counsel, who was assisted by Sri Sangiv Kumar, learned counsel for the petitioner , Smt. Runuka Ratnakar, learned Addl. Public

Prosecutor as well as Sri Krishna Narayan Jha, learned counsel, who has voluntarily appeared on behalf of the complainant/Opp.Party no.2.

The petitioner has prayed for grant of anticipatory bail in Complaint Case No.220/2012, T. R.No.4286/2015 for the offence under Section 498A of the Indian Penal Code.

At the very outset, by way of referring to the statement made in paragraph-9 of the petition, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner, husband of complainant/Opp.Party no.2, is still ready to keep her as wife with all respect and dignity. However, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the complainant/Opp.Party no.2 has vehemently opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail. He submits that earlier on number of occasions, this plea was taken and settlement almost arrived but immediately thereafter, the petitioner has disowned her.

Keeping in view the stand taken by learned counsel for the complainant/Opp.Party no.2 as well as the allegation made in the complaint petition, there is no reason to extend the privilege of anticipatory bail.

The petition stands dismissed.
