CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR

ORAL ORDER

4 19-12-2016 Sri Subhash Patel, learned counsel for the petitioner, in presence of learned Additional Public Prosecutor submits that petitioner being Chief Engineer has only been alleged that he has not supervised the matter properly. He submits that petitioner is a government servant who retired long back in the year 2013 and present F.I.R. was lodged in the year 2015 and he was made accused. However , after noticing the fact that this court was not inclined to extend the privilege of anticipatory bail, learned counsel for the petitioner makes a prayer for disposal of the present petition so that , petitioner may appear before the court below and makes a prayer for regular bail.

The prayer is allowed.

The anticipatory bail petition stands disposed of with observation that if within a period of six weeks from today petitioner appears before the court below and makes a prayer for regular bail, the learned court below without being prejudiced with this order may examine the same and pass appropriate order in accordance with law preferably on the same day.

It is made clear that this court has not at all recorded any opinion on the merit of the case.
