ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 30-01-2016

This writ application is dismissed with an observation that the right of the petitioner for balance pension and gratuity etc. will only accrue provided petitioner comes clean in the vigilance case, which has been instituted against him and is pending, a fact concealed by him previously in the previous proceeding as is the stand of the State in the counter affidavit. In addition to that, petitioner is refusing to co-operate with the respondent authorities to delay the matter.

If that be so, let Vigilance Case No. 68 of 2010 be taken to its logical end and the petitioner is free to assert his right for balance pension of 10% thereafter.
