There is allegation that the petitioners along with others assaulted the informant as well as her family members.

The informant appears to have received one grievous injury on her head but submission on behalf of the petitioners is that there is case and counter case between the parties and persons from both sides sustained injuries and apart from this, co-accused Upendra Singh and four others including the co-accused Sanjeev Singh against whom, there is allegation of assault, have already been granted privilege of anticipatory bail by a co-ordinate Bench of this Court vide order dated 05.05.2016 in Criminal Miscellaneous No. 17924 of 2016.

Considering the aforesaid submission as well as facts and circumstances of the case, this anticipatory bail stands disposed of giving direction to the petitioners to surrender before the court below and seek regular bail within four weeks from the date of receipt / production of copy of this order and, if, they do so and seek regular bail, the same shall be considered by the concerned court on its own merit without being prejudiced by this order, particularly, keeping in mind that having more or less similar allegation, some co-accused have already been granted privilege of anticipatory bail by a co-ordinate Bench of this Court and it is also made clear that the concerned court shall pass order on regular bail application of the petitioners on the date of its filing.
