CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE DINESH KUMAR SINGH
ORAL ORDER

2 08-02-2016

Heard learned counsels for the petitioner and the State.

The petitioner being the husband of the informant is apprehending arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 323, 307, 380 and 498A of the Indian Penal Code.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner admits his marriage with the informant.

Though, it appears from the impugned order that the informant was ready to reconcile the issue and live with the petitioner but the petitioner refused to keep her on the ground that she has given divorce to the petitioner.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that due to divorce given by the informant to the petitioner he is unable to keep the informant as wife with dignity and honour.

Considering the nature of accusation and the stand of the petitioner, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Let the learned Court below consider the prayer for regular bail of the petitioner, if the petitioner surrenders within a period of six weeks in connection with Jale P.S. Case No.1/2015, pending before the learned SDJM, Darbhanga.

With the above observation, this application is, accordingly, disposed off.
