CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAMESH KUMAR
DATTA
ORAL ORDER

2      25-11-2016              This is the second round, in which the petitioner is praying for grant of anticipatory bail for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 149, 302, 323, 342 and 307 of the Indian Penal Code.

Earlier, the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner was rejected by this Court by order dated 30.09.2013 passed in Cr. Misc. No.23076 of 2013.

No fresh material has been brought on the record by the petitioner to show as to why he is entitled to release on anticipatory bail after a lapse of three years, rather not surrendering before the court below despite the rejection of his prayer for anticipatory bail would go against him.

The prayer for anticipatory bail is, accordingly, rejected.

It is stated by learned counsel for the petitioner that the accused persons named in the first information report have since been granted anticipatory bail/bail and, therefore, the case of the petitioner should be considered by the court below on the same day on which he surrenders and prays for bail.

In view of the aforesaid statement, the learned court below is directed to consider the bail application of the petitioner on the same day on which he surrenders.
