CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE VIKASH JAIN

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 02.08.2016

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the respondents.

2. The present writ petition has been filed for a direction to the respondents to allot the tender no. State CAMPA Bihar MN/APO (2010-11)/1 dated 25.05.2011 published vide Advertisement No. PR-1703 (Forest) 11-12 dated 25.05.2011 in favour of the petitioner; to declare the issuance of LOI in favour of respondent no. 6 to be null and void; and for award of compensation to the petitioner.

3. At the very outset, learned counsel for the respondents states that the work in question in terms of the tender has since already been completed. This fact has not been disputed by the petitioner.

4. In the above view of the matter therefore, no relief can be granted to the petitioner with regard to allotment of tender in favour of the petitioner or for setting aside issuance of LOI in favour of respondent no. 6.

5. As regards prayer for award of compensation claimed by the petitioner this Court is not inclined to enter into the merits of compensation, which the petitioner may agitate before such forum as may be available to it in accordance with law.

6. The writ petition stands dismissed with the aforesaid observation.
