CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE DINESH KUMAR SINGH
ORAL ORDER

4 05-04-2016 The petitioners being parents and brother are apprehending their arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 498A, 342, 323, 307, 504/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The prosecution case is of torture to the daughter of the informant for non-fulfilment of dowry demand and causing burn injuries.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioners that accusation is omnibus and general against the petitioners. The First Information Report was lodged after 35 days of the occurrence and the victim received accidental burn injury while cooking.

Learned A.P.P, after going through the case diary has submitted that not only the informant and other witnesses but the victim herself has stated that petitioners also participated in causing burn injuries. The injury report suggests 70% burn injuries found to be grievous in nature.

In the circumstance, this Court is not inclined to grant privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Let learned Court below consider the prayer for regular bail of the petitioners, if the petitioners surrender within a period of six weeks in connection with Paroo P.S. Case No. 174 of 2015, pending in the Court of learned Sub-Divisional Judicial Magistrate, West, Muzaffarpur.

With the observations above, the application stands disposed off.
