CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AHSANUDDIN AMANULLAH
ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 11-03-2016

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

At the very outset, learned counsel for the petitioners submits that in view of the nature of the grievance of the petitioners which primarily relates to adjudication of facts with reference to the records, the writ Court may not be the appropriate forum for the present. He accordingly submits that he may be permitted to withdraw the writ petition with liberty to move before the Debt Recovery Tribunal for getting the matter adjudicated, if already not moved.

Learned counsel for the respondents does not object.

Having considered the aforesaid, the writ petition stands disposed off as withdrawn with liberty aforesaid.

It goes without saying that if an appropriate application is filed before the Debt Recovery Tribunal (D.R.T.) along with a copy of this order within three weeks from today, the D.R.T. shall proceed and hear the matter on merits without rejecting the application on the ground of limitation, to which learned counsel for the respondents have also no objection.
