CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE VIKASH JAIN

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 18-01-2016

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the State.

2. The petitioner has filed this writ petition for a direction to the respondents to cancel the tender allotted to respondent no. 8 and hand over the same to the petitioner.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner fairly states that the relevant notice inviting tender contemplated a period of six months for completion of the work which has already elapsed. It is, however, stated that despite not having been allotted the work, petitioner's security amount etc. have not yet been refunded.

4. In that view of the matter, the prayer in the writ petition has been rendered infructuous by efflux of time and no positive relief can be granted to the petitioner at this belated stage.

5. The writ petition stands dismissed as having become infructuous. Needless to say, the petitioner has always liberty to approach the respondents for redressal of any remaining grievances.
