CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE KISHORE KUMAR MANDAL

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 30-01-2016

Heard the Counsel for the petitioner and the State.

The husband of the petitioner was serving the Police Force in the Government having joined on 4.3.1966. He was proceeded against and dismissed from service in November, 1980. The husband survived for 10 years and ultimately died on 20.10.1997. Nearly 17 years thereafter, the writ petition has been filed by the widow raising claim for some of the retiral dues. It is stated that the G.P.F. amount payable to the husband was not cleared/paid.

On the contrary, the State has pointed out from diverse representation filed by her that no such claim, specifically, was raised before the Authority.

On going through the pleadings on record, prima facie, it appears the writ application suffers from inordinate delay and latches.

The Court is not inclined to exercise its writ jurisdiction in the matter.

However, as prayed, the application is disposed of permitting the petitioner to file a specific claim in this regard before the appropriate/competent authority for consideration/examination in accordance with law.
