CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

2. 21-09-2016 After some argument, Dr. Anjani Prasad Singh, learned counsel for petitioners, in presence of Sri Ram Anurag Singh, learned Addl. Public Prosecutor, makes a prayer for disposal of the present petition so that petitioners may appear before the court below and make a prayer for regular bail.

Learned counsel for petitioners submits that ofcourse Section 307 of the Indian Penal Code has been incorporated in the F.I.R., but there is no material to suggest commission of such offence.

The Court appreciates the submission of learned counsel for petitioners, but it is opinion of the Court that in such cases, instead of extending the privilege of anticipatory bail, petitioners can be asked to appear before the court below and make a prayer for regular bail. If within a period of six weeks from today, the petitioners appear before the court below and make a prayer for regular bail, the learned court below, without being prejudiced with this order, may examine the same and pass appropriate order in accordance with law, preferably on the same date.

The petition stands disposed of.
