at the instance of the learned counsel for the petitioner. Today, no one appeared on behalf of the petitioner.

In the present case, the petitioner is claiming for his appointment as Home Guard. The petitioner belongs to the Scheduled Caste Category, applied against the advertisement published by the Central Selection Board. He has appeared in the examination, but could not be selected as he has not obtained appropriate marks in the examination.

This fact has also been stated in paragraph No.17 of the Counter Affidavit filed by the Central Selection Board of Constable, which is as follows:-

“17. That it is stated that the petitioner namely Aditya Kumar (Roll No.86030179) belongs to Scheduled Caste Male Non Home Guard (SC-M-NHG) category. He has secured lesser marks than the last recommended candidate in his category. The petitioner has secured 71 marks and the cut off marks in his category is 74 marks.”

In view of the specific statement made by the Central Selection Board of Constable, the present case is without merit. Accordingly, this writ petition is dismissed.
