CORAM: HON'BLE MR JUSTICE NAVANITI PRASAD SINGH
And
HONOURABLE MR JUSTICE RAJENDRA KUMAR MISHRA

ORAL JUDGMENT

(Per: HONOURABLE MR JUSTICE NAVANITI PRASAD SINGH)

Date: 13-07-2016

We have heard Shri Jitendra Singh, learned Senior

Counsel in support of this application and Shri S M Arif, learned counsel appearing for All India Radio.

2 Having given our anxious consideration to the matter at hand, we had intended to end the controversy but finding that these are proceedings in contempt and our jurisdiction is limited not being adjudicatory, we advisedly refrain from entering into the merits of the matter. We may notice that in the writ proceedings, the only positive direction we had given, without findings of fact, that the authorities must consider the cases individually and take a decision. We had noticed the earlier rounds of litigations and findings therein that Director General, All India Radio, not having passed appropriate orders within the time fixed, these proceedings were initiated whereupon orders were passed.

3 Mr Jitendra Singh, learned Senior Counsel for the petitioners submitted that the orders were deliberately wrongly passed denying them the privileges they were entitled to because they have moved in contempt.

4 On the other hand, learned counsel appearing for All India Radio submitted that in fact there were material facts which had not been appreciated earlier and noticing those facts, this order has been passed in bona fide.

5 To us, now it appears, whether the order is right or wrong, would be a matter of adjudication but surely not a matter of contempt. It would, thus, be desirable that the petitioners take recourse to the settlement of dispute at the level of the Tribunal at the first instance and once the facts and issues are settled, the aggrieved party would have his remedy but such an adjudication would be totally undesirable in a contempt proceeding.

6 We, accordingly, so direct and dispose of these proceedings.
