ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 31-08-2016

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

2. The petitioner has invoked the writ jurisdiction of this Court claiming a direction to the respondents to provide protection of his life and property from respondent nos. 7 to 9.

3. The petitioner and private respondents are members of the same family, inasmuch as the petitioner is the daughter of Late Dasrath Ram, whereas respondent no. 10 is her brother, whereas respondent nos. 8 and 9 are purchasers of the land from the brother of the petitioner. There is a history of civil proceedings between the parties. Since the issue is between the family members and that in the absence of any threat perception to life and property of the petitioner, the police cannot provide security to the petitioner.

4. I do not find any merit in the present writ application. The writ application is, thus, dismissed.
