CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE DINESH KUMAR SINGH
ORAL ORDER

3 18-04-2016 Petitioner being husband of the complainant is apprehending his arrest in a complaint case wherein processes were directed to be issued after cognizance being taken for the offences punishable under Section 498A of the Indian Penal Code.

The basic accusation is of torture.

On submission on behalf of the petitioner that petitioner admits his marriage with the complainant and ready to keep the complainant with dignity and honour, on the joint prayer of the parties, the matter was referred to the Mediation & Conciliation Centre of the State Legal Services Authority vide order dated 08.02.2016.

Though the report of the Mediator has not been received, but it is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the issue has been resolved between the parties and both, the petitioner and the complainant are residing together. The aforesaid submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner is not controverted by Mrs. Kiran Singh, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the complainant/O.P. No. 2, though no affidavit to that effect has been filed.

Considering the submissions of the counsels for both the sides that the matter has been resolved and petitioner and the complainant are residing together, let the petitioner, above named, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the Court below within a period of 12 weeks from today, be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/-(ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Judicial Magistrate, 1st Class, Nawada in connection with Complaint Case No. 246/2015/5865/2015, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.
