Heard.

The petitioner seeks anticipatory bail in Jehanabad P.S. case no. 98 of 2015 registered under Sections 307,302/34 of the IPC and Section 27 of the Arms Act.

While the informant was about to reach his home, it is alleged that he saw his father Mahendra Bhagat fleeing away in a bleeding condition. The accused Shambhu Kumar was chasing with sword. The petitioner in the meanwhile also came and fired which scared the informant. On hulla the villagers gathered and the accused fled away. In the house the informant saw his mother lying near the hand pipe dead. The Bhabhi Kavita Devi, his brother Chhotu were also lying in an injured condition who were taken to the hospital .

The counsel for the informant has submitted that in course of investigation the injured Mahendra Bhagat has supported the prosecution case incriminating the petitioner in the crime/offence. On perusal of the allegations and considering the severity of the offence of which the petitioner is accused as also the materials reflected from the records, I do not find it a fit case for grant of anticipatory bail. His prayer for anticipatory bail is, accordingly, rejected.
