languishing in custody since 04.11.2015 in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 498A, 406, 307, 323, 379, 504, 506, 511 of the Indian Penal Code.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that accusation of demand of dowry has been levelled after nine years of marriage and even assuming the accusation no case under Section 307 I.P.C is made out.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the informant that informant was tortured and was driven out from the matrimonial house. Moreover the petitioner has performed second marriage, though case has not been registered under Section 494 of the Indian Penal Code.

Considering the nature of accusation, let the petitioner, above named, be released on provisional bail for three months on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Siwan in connection with Barharia P.S. Case No. 185 of 2015.

Learned Court below will make an effort to reconcile the issue between the parties since the differences have cropped in after nine years of marriage. On substantial restoration of matrimonial harmony the provisional bail of the petitioner will be confirmed by learned Court below. It is made clear that if the petitioner will fail to appear on the next date fixed by learned Court below, learned Court below will be at liberty to cancel the bail bonds of the petitioner.
