CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AJAY KUMAR TRIPATHI

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 05-08-2016

Heard learned counsels for the parties.

Writ application has been filed for a direction upon the respondent-Examination Board to issue a duplicate mark-sheet of matriculation, since he had passed the examination in the year 1998 and in support thereof a photo copy of the earlier mark-sheet has been annexed.

The stand of the Examination Board is that the mark-sheet, which has been annexed with the writ application, is a forged piece of document. They have annexed the extract of the tabulation register, which indicates that the petitioner had failed. If the records of the Examination Board indicate such a position, they cannot issue a duplicate mark-sheet on the basis of what the petitioner is claiming as to be his original mark-sheet.

In the controversial circumstances as above, there cannot be a mandamus in favour of the petitioner.

In view of the aforesaid facts and circumstances, writ application is dismissed.
