For the Opposite Party/s : Mr. Anil Kumar(App)

CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE DINESH KUMAR SINGH
ORAL ORDER

2 06-04-2016

The petitioner being husband of the informant is apprehending his arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 498A, 506, 380, 34 of the Indian Penal Code and $\frac{3}{4}$ of the Dowry Prohibition Act.

The basic accusation is of torture for non-fulfilment of dowry demand and driving out the informant from the matrimonial house.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the issue has been settled between the parties. The informant has performed second marriage and at earlier point of time the case was lodged by the petitioner's side.

It appears from the impugned order that the case has been registered under Sections 498A, 506, 380, 342/34 of the Indian Penal Code and the charge-sheet has been submitted after declaring the petitioner as absconder.

In the circumstance, this Court is not inclined to grant privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Let learned Court below consider the prayer for regular bail of the petitioner, if the petitioner surrenders within a period of six weeks in connection with Banmankhi P.S. Case No. 76 of 2007, pending in the Court of learned Sub-Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Purnea.
