ORAL ORDER

5 26-08-2016 Heard the parties.

Both these applications, seeking anticipatory bail, arise out of same Raniganj P.S. Case No. 227 of 2015 (G.R. No. 3017 of 2015), registered for the offences punishable under Sections 409 and 420 read with Section 34 of the Indian Penal Code and are being, therefore, taken up together and being disposed of by this present common order.

The petitioners were the Chairman and Members of Primary Agriculture Co-operative Societies. Allegedly, they misappropriated huge amount between Rs. 5,45,000/- and 10,96,000/- inasmuch as, they had withdrawn the said amount from the Bank for the purchase of paddy from the farmers. Allegedly, they did not deposit the paddy at the respective centers.

Considering the gravity of the offence, I am not inclined to grant the petitioners, above named, the privilege of anticipatory bail.

This application is, accordingly, rejected.

The petitioners, above named, are directed to surrender before the court below within a period of four weeks from today and seek regular bail, if so advised. If they do so, their application for regular bail shall be considered by the learned court below on its own merit without being prejudiced by rejection of present application for grant of anticipatory bail.
