CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AJAY KUMAR TRIPATHI

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 01-09-2016

Every litigant or a citizen is supposed to be aware of his right and he must assert it at the earliest and not at his leisure.

A preliminary objection is taken by the counsel for the University that effort is sought to be made by filing this writ application at such a belated stage claiming benefit of shifting of his date of promotion when petitioner is a retiree of 30.10.1999. Such settled positions should not be allowed to be unsettled merely because petitioner has all the time at his disposal after retiring 17 years ago.

Learned counsel representing the University submits that even the relief and pleadings are vague as to when such shifting is expected. That too is a good ground to reject the writ.

The writ application is dismissed on the above grounds.

(Ajay Kumar Tripathi, J)
