ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 20-08-2016

The writ application is dismissed on the sole ground that there cannot be multiplicity of disputes before different forums, including the High Court, especially when a case of succession has already been instituted by Respondent No. 6, where these petitioners have also intervened.

Till such declaration is made and decided, this Court will not create any advantage or prejudice in favour or against any of the contesting parties.

Writ application is dismissed, accordingly.
