CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

5. 09-05-2016 Heard Sri Pramod Mishra, learned counsel for the petitioner and learned A.C. to Addl. Advocate General – 2.

In the present writ petition, the petitioner has made a prayer for directing the respondents to appoint her on compassionate ground. The husband of the petitioner was under work charge establishment and while functioning in the same capacity, he died in the year 2001 itself.

In this case, by way of filing counter affidavit, it has been stated that the husband of the petitioner was appointed under temporary work charge establishment and he died as work charged employee. Subsequently, in the year 2002 itself, a decision was taken to revert all the employees under work charge establishment to the daily-wages employees.

Ofcourse, reply to the counter affidavit has been filed, but fact has not been disputed that the husband of the petitioner was under work charge establishment.

In view of facts and circumstances that husband of the petitioner was not under regular establishment, certainly no direction can be issued to appoint the petitioner on compassionate ground.

I do not find any ground to pass any favourable order.
Dismissed.
