CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE KISHORE KUMAR
MANDAL
ORAL ORDER

3      19-11-2016                      Heard.

The petitioner being the husband of the deceased is accused of offence punishable under sections 304-B, 201 and 120-B IPC vide Rani Talab P.S. Case No. 22 of 2015.

As per the prosecution case, the daughter of the informant was married to the petitioner only few years ago. She was subjected to torture on account of non fulfillment of demand of dowry. It is alleged that the in-laws including the petitioner connived with each other and killed the daughter of the informant inasmuch as the dead body was also disappeared. Learned Sessions Judge in the impugned order has found that in course of investigation the witnesses have supported the prosecution case inasmuch as the charge sheet has also been filed.

Indisputably, the victim died in suspicious circumstances while she was at the matrimonial home. The petitioner is said to be in custody since 08.05.2016.

Learned APP has opposed the prayer and also submitted that not only the allegation in the FIR is attributed to the petitioner but in course of investigation also the Investigating Officer found incriminating materials against the petitioner.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, I am not persuaded to extend the petitioner the privilege of bail. Prayer is accordingly rejected.
