CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE KISHORE KUMAR MANDAL
ORAL ORDER

2 01-07-2016 Heard the counsel for the petitioners and Mr. Dayal,

APP for the State.

The three petitioners herein have been named along with others as accused of Majhauriya P.S. Case No. 260 of 2015 registered under section 366-A/34 IPC. Hence the anticipatory bail application.

The informant has alleged that on the relevant date, a Barat had come to the village. After crossing the Barat from his door he could find that his sister aged about 14 years was abducted. On making enquiry, the case was lodged naming as many as eight persons as abductors. The police investigated the case. Thereafter the final form was submitted stating the case to be mistaken fact. The learned Magistrate differing with the police report took cognizance.

It is stated that the girl was produced for her statement under section 164 Cr. P.C. in which the Magistrate has assessed her age about 18 years. She has admitted that both parties were at loggerheads. In her statement, she has not alleged about her abduction forcibly and subjecting to any sexual harassment.

Counsel for the petitioner states the learned Sessions Judge referring to various paragraphs of the case diary has noted in its order that the victim girl had love affairs with Kamlesh Paswan who is cited as the main accused.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the petitioners named above, in the event of arrest/surrender within four weeks from today, shall be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction learned 1st Additional District and Sessions Judge-cum-Special Judge, West Champaran at Bettiah in connection with Majhulia P.S. Case No. 260 of 2015 on condition that one of the bailors of each of the petitioners shall be their own/close family members. They shall appear in person on each date fixed at trial. In case of default on two consecutive dates, their bail bonds shall stand cancelled.
