ORAL ORDER

4 15-12-2016

On 25.11.2016, on the prayer made by learned counsel for the petitioners informing the Court that petitioner no. 1 has died, the matter was adjourned to enable him to take appropriate steps in the matter. Today, learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that he has not received any instructions.

In view of the aforesaid, the Court can only presume that the petitioners are not interested in pursuing the matter.

The writ petition, accordingly, stands dismissed.

Learned counsel for the State is present.
