CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE VIKASH JAIN

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 26-09-2016

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the respondents.

2. The present writ petition has been filed for quashing the legal notice dated 31.05.2012 (Annexure-5) by which the respondents have charged a sum of Rs. 2,17,025/- in the loan account of the petitioner; and for connected reliefs.

3. Without going into the detailed merits of the claims contained in the writ petition, learned counsel for the petitioner fairly states that the petitioner has since liquidated the entire loan and the tractor has been released by the Bank in favour of the petitioner.

4. Having regard to the stand taken on behalf of the petitioner, the writ petition is disposed of as having become infructuous.

5. An oral prayer is made on behalf of the petitioner for compensation for delay in release of the tractor to the petitioner. This Court makes no observation in this behalf.

6. Needless to say, the petitioner is always at liberty to approach such appropriate forum as may be available to him in accordance with law for raising his claim for compensation.
