ORAL ORDER

2 07-09-2016 Since there are certain matters, which are subjudice, this Court will not issue a mandamus upon the respondents to complete the process of selection since it will have a direct bearing on the pending matters. If such issue has come to rest and finally decided, the petitioner has liberty to bring it to the notice of the authority with supporting material. It may be thereafter that the occasion for starting the process for engagement of Anganwari Sevika for the centre in question may arise.

Writ stands disposed of with the above observation.
