CORAM: HONOURABLE DR. JUSTICE RAVI RANJAN
ORAL ORDER

2 04-07-2016 Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the State.

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in connection with Kothi P.S. Case No.27 of 2015 registered for the offence punishable under Section 392 of the Indian Penal Code.

It is contended on behalf of the petitioner that subsequently a compromise petition has been filed, however, he has not been able to show that offence under Section 390 I.P.C. is compoundable. From perusal of the FIR, it appears that the petitioner and others were involved in snatching of motorcycle
of the informant and the informant has identified the petitioner during course of occurrence.

Having regard to the aforementioned facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is not inclined to grant privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, this application is dismissed.

However, it is made clear that, in case the petitioner surrenders and seeks regular bail then the court below would proceed to take a decision on its own merit and in accordance with law without being prejudiced by the present order.
