CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE V. NATH

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 25-10-2016

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner.

By the impugned order, the learned court below has turned down the prayer made on behalf of the plaintiff for adducing some documents in evidence.

It has not been disputed on behalf of the petitioner that the argument on behalf of the defendants in the T.S. No. 484 of 2005 was over and the argument on behalf of the plaintiff commenced and at that stage the petition was filed by the plaintiff-petitioner for bringing on record some documents as evidence on the plea that those documents were misplaced. The learned court below after considering the facts and circumstances of the case has turned down the prayer made on behalf of the petitioner.

After considering the submissions and in the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is not inclined to invoke the jurisdiction under Article 227 of the Constitution of India for interdicting the impugned order.

The application is, accordingly, dismissed.
