CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ASHWANI KUMAR SINGH

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 21-07-2016

It is apparent from the averments made in the writ petition and the counter affidavit filed on behalf of the State that there is primarily a dispute between a landlord and tenant.

2. The petitioner has approached this Court in writ jurisdiction for issuance of a direction to the respondents to unlock the shop, over which a lock has been put by respondent No. 6, namely, Sri Ram Sevak Jaiswal who is a private person.

3. It is well settled that a writ petition would not lie against a private person. The petitioner has an alternative efficacious statutory remedy available in law for the redressal of his grievance.

4. In that view of the matter, I am not inclined to entertain this application. Accordingly, it is dismissed.
