CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AJAY KUMAR TRIPATHI

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 26-04-2016

Petitioners have filed writ application for a direction for inclusion of their name for appointment on a class IV post since they claim themselves to be a seasonal DDT Sprayer working in the District Malaria Office, Gaya.

In the counter affidavit filed on behalf of the respondents, a stand has been taken that the petitioners are basically working as voluntary health workers since the year 2006 and their case cannot be equated with those working since the year 1991. It is disputed that even the nature of work, which has been asserted in the writ application, are similar or identical to DDT Sprayers.

If an exercise has been done with regard to creation of a panel with regard to such workers, who have been working since 1991, the effort on the part of these petitioners is to somehow obtain an order and direction from this Court for consideration for inclusion when the facts with regard to engagement and the period of work are totally different, no such direction and order can be issued.

Writ application is, therefore, dismissed.
