CORAM: HONOURABLE JUSTICE SMT. ANJANA MISHRA
ORAL ORDER

2 04-01-2016

Heard learned Counsel for the petitioner and learned Counsel appearing on behalf of the State.

The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in connection with Barauli P.S. Case No. 151 of 2015, registered for offences punishable under Sections 366A, 363/34 of the Indian Penal code.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that his name has been brought into the present F.I.R. due to malicious intent as he is the Ex-Sarpanch of the village. He further submits that the petitioner has no role to play in the disappearance of minor girl.

However, considering the fact that the minor girl has not yet been recovered, I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, which is accordingly rejected.

It is made clear that if the petitioner can facilitate the recovery of the victim girl who is a minor and is said to be living with the grandparents of the accused as is submitted by the learned Counsel for the petitioner, he may move the Court below. Thereafter, it shall be open to the concerned Court to consider his case on its own merit without being prejudiced by this order on the same day.
