CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

3 05-12-2016 Heard Sri Lalan Kumar Verma, learned counsel for the petitioners and learned Addl. Public Prosecutor.

Two petitioners, who are father-in-law and mother-in-law of the deceased respectively , have prayed for grant of anticipatory bail in Kesariya P.S. Case No.160/2016 registered for the offence under Sections 341, 323, 498(A), 304(B) of the Indian Penal Code and Sections 3 / 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act.

It was submitted by learned counsel for the petitioners that petitioners have no concern with the alleged occurrence. He tried to persuade the Court that the husband of the deceased was residing separately.

In this case, earlier case diary was called for, which has been received.

Learned Addl. Public Prosecutor, after perusing and examining the case diary, submits that it is not a case for grant of anticipatory bail.

Besides hearing learned counsel for the parties, I have also perused the materials on record. After going through the same, the Court is of the opinion that it is not a case for grant of anticipatory bail. However, it is observed that if within six weeks from today, petitioners appear before the court below and make a prayer for regular bail, learned court below without being prejudiced with this order may examine the same and pass appropriate order in accordance with law preferably on the same day.

The petition stands disposed of.
