CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE KISHORE KUMAR MANDAL
ORAL ORDER

2 22-02-2016 Heard the Counsel for the petitioner and the State.

Although, the application prays for a direction to provide protection to the petitioner by the State respondents in maintaining her possession over the particular piece of land but on going through the relevant pleadings made in the writ application as well as in the counter affidavit, prima facie, it appears that a land dispute exists between the parties.

Counsel for the petitioner, after making submissions at some length, submits that the petitioner will invoke the statutory jurisdiction of the authority for appropriate relief. Counsel for the petitioner has also referred to the statement made in the counter affidavit filed on behalf of respondent no. 11 in which it has been stated that he has no concern with the land stating further that the vendor of the writ petitioner had earlier sold the subject land to different persons.

The writ application stands disposed of permitting the petitioner to invoke the relevant jurisdiction of the authority/Court in accordance with law in relation to the land claimed by her.
