ORAL ORDER

2 25-02-2016

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the State.

Petitioner is apprehending his arrest in a case
registered for the offences punishable under Sections 366, 379/34 of the Indian Penal Code. Subsequently, Section 376 of the Indian Penal Code was added after recording the statement of victim under Section 164 of the Cr.P.C.

The prosecution case is that the informant's wife was abducted on 20.10.2013 by the petitioner and taking away the jewellery and cash from his house. In 164 Cr.P.C.
statement the victim has supported the accusation of abduction and her being ravished by the petitioner.

It is submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner that the accusation prima facie appears to be unreasonable that the wife of the informant took away all the jewellery and cash from his house while she went in the company of the petitioner. There is no medical report of the victim on record. The petitioner is agnate of the informant.

Let the learned court below consider the prayer for regular bail of the petitioner, if the petitioner surrenders before the learned court below within a period of six weeks from today in connection with Pipra P.S. Case No. 224 of 2013, pending in the court of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Motihari.

With the above observation this application is disposed of.
