CORAM: HONOURABLE DR. JUSTICE RAVI RANJAN
ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 19-11-2016

Heard parties.

It appears that the petitioners have approached this Court without availing alternative remedy of statutory appeal. However, learned counsel for the petitioners now submits that they want to prefer an appeal against the final order which has been passed in the encroachment case concerned.

Accordingly, this writ application is being disposed of granting liberty to the petitioners to avail the remedy of statutory appeal. If such appeal is preferred within a period of one month, then let the same be considered and decided on its own merit and in accordance with law.

Till 30 days, let no coercive action be taken against the petitioners. Thereafter, it would be open to the petitioners to make such prayer for grant of interim relief before the appellate authority itself which would pass necessary orders on its own merit without being prejudiced by the present order.

(Dr. Ravi Ranjan, J)
