CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SAMARENDRA PRATAP SINGH

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 17-03-2016

All the writ petitioners were appointed as Class IV employees in different offices of Nawada district from the list of 2004 select panel. They have subsequently been terminated from service by their respective head of departments. They have challenged their termination in these batch of writ applications. By way of illustration the reliefs sought in one of the writ petitions, i.e. C.W.J.C.No. 6338 of 2014 are quoted herein below:-

For quashing order dated 18.5.2013, passed vide Memo nos. 417, 1395, 1284, 1407, 1409, 1400, 1303, 1414, 1374, 1403, 1385, 1372, 1388, 1382, issued by Civil Surgeon cum Chief Medical Officer, Nawada and for their reinstatement with full back wages. They have further prayed for quashing Memo no. 13/Mu. dated 13.4.2013, passed by the District Magistrate, Nawada, upon which order dated 18.5.2013 has been passed.

2. Before I consider the grounds on basis of which, the reliefs have been claimed, it would be relevant to notice the facts of the case in brief:-

3. The petitioners were engaged in Nawada district on daily wage basis, between 1987 to 97. Some of the daily wages employees, namely Umesh Prasad Yadav and others, moved this Court in C.W.J.C.No. 769/97 for regularization of their service. The case before the learned Single judge was, that they were engaged between 1987-97, as casual workers, and are performing their duties on regular basis. Their names were also enlisted in the 1984 panel prepared at the district level. The panel was short listed in June 1997, in which their names once again figured as daily wage employees. The learned single judge after hearing the parties disposed of the writ petition with direction to the District Magistrate to properly finalize the panel of Class IV employees in accordance with the guidelines laid down in circular no. 16, dated 3.12.1980 as amended by letter, dated 25.4.1997. Another writ petition, being C.W.J.C.No. 7780 of 1998 was disposed of on 1.11.1999 in similar terms. It appears that when in spite of order of this Court, passed in C.W.J.C.No. 7780 of 1998 and 7691 of 1997, no concrete steps were taken by respondents, a contempt petition was filed by one Harendra Prasad Sinha, bearing MJC no. 2090 of 2001. The MJC was disposed of on 18.5.2004 in view of the submissions made on behalf of the State that matter has already been referred to the concerned officials for consideration in light of order of this Court.

4. It is relevant to state that an advertisement was published by the District Magistrate Nawada on 17.1.2004 for appointment of class IV employees in light of earlier order of this Court. The District Magistrate vide memo, dated 10.12.2004 constituted 11 members committee for appointment of class IV employees. After due verification and scrutiny of respective cases, the District Establishment Committee prepared a panel of selected candidates commonly described as 2004 panel published on 24.9.2005. Names of petitioners figured in the said panel. The District Magistrate, Nawada requested the State Government for allotment of necessary fund to ensure payment to selected candidates. The Government vide letter, dated 28.11.2005 (Annexure 8/1) directed the District Magistrate, Nawada to proceed with the appointment of Class IV employees for which fund were to be allocated in the supplementary budget. The fund was duly allocated by the Government which finds due mention in letter, dated 30.3.2006 of Rural Development Department. It is relevant to state that initially a panel of 372 candidates was prepared for appointment to the post of Class IV grade. After considering the roster wise vacancy from the district wise vacancy, the selection committee recommended only 178 candidates for appointment. Out of 178 candidates, 32 were of collectoriate cadre, 34 of the District Education Office, 53 were of office of Civil Surgeon, 18 were of Phulbaria Nahar division and 3 were of Consumer Protection Forum. As such, finally out of 178 candidates, only 130 candidates were appointed. The names of petitioners figured in the list of appointed candidates.

5. Some of the aggrieved persons who were either not appointed or whose names did not figure in the select list of 2004 panel, moved this Court in C.W.J.C.No. 2641 of 2005. They also raised a grievance that while preparing 2004 panel, the candidates of 2002 panel have been overlooked. After hearing the parties, the learned Single judge vide order, dated 28.11.2005 referred the matter to the Department of Vigilance for necessary verification and enquiry. The Vigilance department enquired into the matter and submitted its enquiry report on 13.7.2010 as contained in Annexure 22. In the enquiry report, dated 13.7.2010, the Vigilance Department observed that in view of errors occurring in 2004 Panel, either correction in the panel be done or it may be scrapped. In short, the vigilance department concluded that the panel was not prepared properly and daily wages employees, who were working from the beginning were overlooked and not selected. The Vigilance department opined that either the 2004 panel needs to be suitably amended or to be rejected.

6. This Court vide order, dated 12.7.2010, passed in C.W.J.C.No. 15961 of 2006 directed the District Administration, Nawada to take necessary action in the light of the report of the Vigilance department. The District Magistrate, Nawada vide memo

no. 38, dated 14.1.2011 (Annexure 19) constituted a five men committee headed by the District Development Commissioner to submit its response in view of the enquiry report submitted by the Vigilance department. The committee in its meeting held on 29.10.2011 took a decision to rectify the 2004 panel. It also decided to publish a general notice for candidates concerned to make their objections for amendment of panel.

7. While the aforesaid exercise was in contemplation, the earlier District Magistrate was transferred and a new District Magistrate took over charge. On taking over the charge, the new District Magistrate called a meeting of the District Establishment Committee for taking fresh stalk of the prevailing situation in light of the vigilance report. The District Establishment Committee headed by the District Magistrate, Nawada in its meeting, dated 24.11.2011, decided to scrap 2004 panel holding the same to be unconstitutional having been prepared in breach of Government circulars. The Committee directed that the candidates should be noticed and necessary steps should be taken. The decision of the Establishment Committee was communicated to the different officials of the district including the office of Civil Surgeon, the Education department etc.

8. As a follow up measure, the District Magistrate,

Nawada vide Memo no. 483, dated 23.8.2012 constituted a five men committee under the Chairmanship of the District Development Commissioner to make necessary enquiry and furnish a report in tabular form with respect to the employees appointed from 2004 panel. The committee in its report found nothing irregular in selection of a number of candidates. In the meantime, another contempt petition, bearing MJC no.3938 of 2011 came for hearing. The District Magistrate appeared on 21.3.2013 and assured the court that the final decision would be taken in the matter in a short time. The District Magistrate called an urgent meeting of the District Establishment Committee on 13.4.2013 and ultimately decided to discharge the services of all the employees who were appointed from 2004 panel. A copy of letter, dated 13.4.2013 is contained in Annexure 2, which equally applied to all the candidates who were appointed from select list of 2004 panel. Consequent to the letter, dated 13.4.2013, the respective heads of the departments vide different memos, all dated 18.5.2013 cancelled the appointments. The letters, dated 13.4.2013, and 18.5.2013 are impugned in this batch of writ petitions.

9. Petitioners have assailed the impugned actions of respondents on a number of grounds. They submit that they have been discharged from services, as primarily the panel (2004 Panel) from which they were recruited, was cancelled on 24.11.2011 by the District Establishment Committee. They submit that the impugned resolution, dated 24.11.2011 was passed without affording an opportunity to them to defend 2004 panel and their enlistment in the panel. They submit that subsequent show cause issued in the year 2012-13 was empty formality as the authorities had already taken a decision to scrap the panel in the year 2011. A notice in fact ought to have been issued prior to scrapping of panel.

10. In support of their submissions, the petitioners relied upon decision in case of Oryx Fisheries Private Ltd. Vs. Union of India reported in (2010)13 SCC 427, particularly paragraph 31 which is quoted herein below:-

“31. It is of course true that the show cause notice cannot be read hyper-technically and it is well settled that it is to be read reasonably. But one thing is clear that while reading a show-cause notice the person who is subject to it must get an impression that he will get an effective opportunity to rebut the allegations contained in the show cause notice and prove his innocence. If on a reasonable reading of a show-cause notice a person of ordinary prudence gets the feeling that his reply to the show cause notice will be an empty ceremony and he will merely knock his head against the impenetrable wall of prejudged opinion, such a show cause notice does not commence a fair procedure especially when it is issued in a quasi-judicial proceeding under a statutory regulation which promises to give the person proceeded against a reasonable opportunity of defence.”

11. They also contend that the panel was prepared after issuance of advertisement and after following the rules of reservations and roster scheme of the State Government. They next submit that they have been working on daily wage basis since 1986-89 continuously against vacant posts, and as such they would qualify in terms of the decision rendered in case of State of Karnataka Vs. Uma Devi, reported in 2006(1)SCC 1. Furthermore, most of them were engaged more than 25 to 27 years ago and now they have become over age for any other Government job.

12. Counsel for the State submits that 2004 panel from which the petitioners were appointed, was challenged in this court by some of the aggrieved persons giving rise to a number of writ petitions, including C.W.J.C.No. 2641 of 2005. This Court after hearing the parties disposed of the writ petition on 28.11.2005 observing that the State and its officials have not acted in appropriate manner while preparing 2004 panel. The learned judge referred the entire matter to the Cabinet Vigilance department to make necessary enquiry as to whether the same has been prepared contrary to the directions of the Government with a view to detect the real beneficiary entitled to the selection. Relevant extract of order dated 28.11.2005 is quoted here in below:-

“In these circumstances, it appears to me that the State and its officers have not acted in the manner they were required to act when the 2004 panel was prepared. In those circumstances, the entire matter pertaining to preparation of

2004 panel is sent to the cabinet vigilance department with direction upon them to make an enquiry as to how the 2004 panel was prepared and if the same had been prepared contrary to the directions of the Government and for the purpose of making available to any person a benefit to which he was otherwise not entitled to them the Cabinet Vigilance Department is directed to initiate appropriate proceedings against that beneficiary as well as the benefitor in accordance with law.”

13. Counsel for the State further argued that on enquiry the Vigilance department found a number of irregularities in preparing 2004 panel, as such, it recommended either to rectify the panel or to scrap the entire panel.

14. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the materials on record.

15. The facts of the case is not much in dispute. Petitioners were employed in Nawada district on daily wages basis in between 1987 to 1997. Some of the employees filed C.W.J.C.No. 7691 of 1997 for regularization. The writ petition was disposed of on 10.11.1997 with direction to the District Magistrate to finalize the panel of Class IV employees in accordance with the modified guidelines laid down in circular letter no.16441, dated 3.12.1980 and letter, dated 25.4.1997. Another writ petition, being C.W.J.C.No. 7780/1998 was disposed of on 1.11.1999 in similar terms. As order of the High court was not complied with, contempt petitions came to be filed. Finally 2004 panel was prepared and published in 2005. Some of the aggrieved persons challenged the 2004 panel in C.W.J.C.No. 2641 of 2005 on the ground that persons who were working earlier to 1992 were not considered. This Court by order, dated 28.11.2015, passed in C.W.J.C. No.2641 of 2005 observed that prima facie the preparation of panel was not in accordance with law and contrary to the direction of the State Government which defeated the claims of beneficiaries entitled to selection. Vigilance department after due enquiry submitted its report, dated 22.11.2005 observing some noticeable irregularities in preparation of panel. The Vigilance department as such suggested either to rectify the panel or to scrap 2004 panel. Earlier the District Establishment Committee decided to rectify the panel in its meeting, dated 20.10.2011. Later on the District Establishment Committee, headed by the District Magistrate, Nawada vide resolution, dated 24.11.2011 decided to scrap the panel as the same was prepared in violation of constitutional mandate and Government circulars.

16. In terms of resolutions, dated 24.11.2011 of the District Establishment Committee headed by the District Magistrate, explanations were sought for, from the aggrieved persons. Again on 13.4.2013, the District Establishment Committee decided to discharge the services of all the appointees from 2004 penal, as the same was already scrapped on 24.11.2011 as having been prepared in violation of Government circulars. Case of the petitioners is that no show cause notice was given prior to scrapping 2004 panel on 24.11.2011. It was only after scrapping the panel on 24.11.2011, notice were given to the petitioners and others, to submit their explanations which was empty formality. It is further case of the petitioner that on consideration of show cause five men committee did not find appointment of most of them to be in order.

17. It is not abundantly evident from report of five men committee prepared in tabular form that the discrepancies noticed in Vigilance enquiry set up by this Court were duly addressed. As such, I direct the Principal Secretary, General Administration Department, Government of Bihar (respondent no.2) to once again take an exercise whether it is possible to prepare a rectified panel after meeting the discrepancies as pointed out by the Vigilance department. It is expected that such exercise should be completed within a period of six months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. If personal hearing is sought, the learned Principal Secretary would provide hearing to one or two persons in representative capacity. In case, after due scrutiny, the aforesaid candidates stand out successful, necessary order for their reinstatement would be issued.

18. With the aforesaid observations and directions, this writ application stands disposed of.

Shashi.
