CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE VIKASH JAIN
ORAL ORDER

4 18-04-2016 The present writ petition has been filed for quashing the letter dated 02.06.2014 whereby notice has been given towards termination of contract; and for connected reliefs.

2. At the very outset, learned counsel for the respondent-Railway submits that the grievance of the petitioner has already been redressed and as such, the writ petition has become infructuous. As stated in paragraph 8 of the counter affidavit, no punitive action was taken against the petitioner pursuant to seven days' notice dated 02.06.2014 and the date of completion of the work has been extended as sanctioned by the competent authority by letter dated 22.01.2016.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner on instructions states that he has no objection in view of the aforesaid statements made in the counter affidavit.

4. Having regard to the stand of the parties, the writ petition stands dismissed as having become infructuous.
