CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE DINESH KUMAR SINGH
ORAL ORDER

2 06-01-2016 Heard learned counsels for the petitioner and the State.

The petitioners are apprehending arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 498A, 304B and 201/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The accusation is of killing the daughter of the informant after about two years of the marriage for non-fulfillment of the dowry demand. It is specifically alleged that the daughter of the informant went traceless from her husband's house.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioners that though, the petitioners have been described as cousin father-in-law of the victim but the petitioners are simply co-villagers of the husband of the victim, statement to that effect has been made in para 7 of the petition which reads as follows:-

“That it is stated that the petitioners are merely co-villagers and has no direct relation with the family of accused no.1 who is the husband of the informant’s daughter, neither petitioners have any role in alleged offence.”

It is further submitted that the husband of the victim has also filed complaint case alleging that his wife went traceless from her parents’ house.

Considering the fact that the thrust of accusation is against the husband and close family members of the husband of the victim, let the above named petitioners be released on anticipatory bail, in the event of arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of 12 weeks from today, on furnishing bail bond of ₹10,000/- (ten thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned C.J.M., Vaishali at Hajipur in connection with Desari P.S. Case No. 66 of 2015, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) Cr.P.C.
