CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AJAY KUMAR TRIPATHI

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 21-09-2016

Prima facie the Court is satisfied that the opposite parties have taken steps for compliance of the direction by initiating a fresh process of selection. No doubt there has been some delay but since the said delay is not extraordinary and it seems that a collective decision has been taken to fill up all vacancies available by initiating a process simultaneously including of the centre in question, therefore, the Court is not satisfied that the opposite parties need to be proceeded against under the contempt jurisdiction.

If the petitioner is eligible in terms of the guidelines prevalent, she surely has a right for being considered.

Contempt application is dismissed.
