ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 20-07-2016

Petitioner is free to approach the Civil Surgeon for payment for period of work he has done in case a claim is made out.

The Court expresses no opinion on the merit of the claim.

So far as primary relief with regard to extension of contract is concerned, in the given circumstances explained in the counter affidavit it was prima facie a wrong decision on the part of the respondents to accord benefit of contractual engagement to the petitioner by the authority contrary to the directive. It is for the superior authority to verify.

Writ is disposed of in terms of the above observation.
