CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AJAY KUMAR TRIPATHI

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 21-12-2016

The petitioner has tried one to many times to beget compassionate appointment under the respondents. Writs, LPAs, Reviews, yet another Writ and another Writ are before this Court.
Death of the mother of the petitioner, who was also a government servant, happened in the year 1996.

In the above circumstances, the writ application should have been dismissed with exemplary cost but since counsel for the petitioner has tactically remained absent when the matter is taken up, the petitioner is let off with a warning that if in future writ applications are filed on this score, a heavy cost is going to be imposed upon him.

Writ is dismissed.

(Ajay Kumar Tripathi, J)
