It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that petitioner admits his marriage with the informant and birth of three daughters and one son. It is further submitted that petitioner has not performed second marriage. A statement to that effect has been made in para 12 of the petition which reads as follows:-

“That from the recital of Bihta P.S. Case No. 257 of 2015, it is evidently clear that the petitioner had not performed second marriage with Manju Kumari @ Guriya rather it is concoction of the informant”

It is further submitted that petitioner is ready to keep the informant and children with full dignity and honour. A statement to that effect has been made in para 15 of the petition which reads as follows:-

“That it is stated that the petitioner is ready to keep the informant as his wife as also his children with full affection, dignity and surety”

It is submitted by learned counsel for the informant that informant is ready to accept the offer of the petitioner.

Both sides agree to appear before learned Court below on 25th of January, 2016, when the petitioner will take the informant and children to her matrimonial house to keep her as wife with full dignity and honour.

Considering the aforesaid stand of the parties, let the petitioner, above named, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the Court below within a period of 12 weeks from today, be released on provisional anticipatory bail for one year on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Danapur in connection with Bihta P.S. Case No. 268 of 2015.

The provisional anticipatory bail of the petitioner will be confirmed by the learned Court below in three eventualities (i) On substantial restoration of the matrimonial harmony within a period of one year (ii) If the informant fails to appear before learned Court below (iii) If the informant is reluctant to reconcile the issue.
