ORAL ORDER

2 29-09-2016 Heard the parties.

 This application, for grant of anticipatory bail, arises out of Phulwaria P.S. Case No. 181 of 2015, disclosing offences under Section 7 of the Essential Commodities Act.

 Seventy bags of rice weighing thirty quintals, were seized by the Block Supply Officer, Teghda, in the district of Begusarai, which was being carried in a tempo.
The driver of the said tempo disclosed that the said consignment was loaded from the PDS shops of co-accused, namely, Mahendra Choudhary.

Though the petitioner is not named in the First Information Report, learned counsel, appearing on his behalf, has submitted that in the further statement, made in course of investigation before the police, the said driver has disclosed the name of this petitioner as the person to whom the said consignment was meant to be delivered. He has submitted that over and above this fact, there is no allegation against this petitioner.

Considering the submission, as above, this application is allowed. Let the petitioner, above named, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the court below within six weeks, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Sub-Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Begusarai, in connection with Phulwaria P.S. Case No. 181 of 2015, subject to the condition laid down under Section 438 (2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

This is subject to the condition that the petitioner shall present himself before the police/Court, as the case may be, as and when required and in the event of failure on his part to appear before the Court on two consecutive occasions, his bail bond shall be liable to be cancelled.
