CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE V. NATH

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 06-09-2016

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner.

By the impugned order the learned appellate court below has directed the parties to maintain status quo over the property till disposal of the suit after reversing the order rejecting the petition for injunction as filed by the plaintiff.

The learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner who is the defendant in the suit have got title and possession over the suit lands. However the learned counsel for the petitioner could not show or establish before this Court as to how the impugned order directing the parties to maintain status quo shall prejudice the interest of the petitioner in any manner.

After considering the submissions and perusal of the impugned order, this court does not find that any sufficient reason has been made out for interference in the impugned order by invoking the jurisdiction under Article 227 of the Constitution of India.

The application is, accordingly, dismissed.
