The petitioners apprehend their arrest in connection with Maner P.S. Case No.538 of 2015 registered under Sections 420 and 406 of the Indian Penal Code besides Sections 3/4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act.

The accusation is that the marriage of Rashmi Kumari, the daughter of the informant, Sulekha Devi, was settled with the co-accused Munna Kumar, the son of the petitioners and cash Rs.8,00,000/- was transferred in the account of the petitioner no.1 through R.T.G.S. whereas Rs.3,11,000/- was given on different occasions but before eight days of the date of marriage, the demand of Rs.6,00,000/- more was again started and the petitioners refused to perform the marriage of the daughter of the informant with his son.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners submits that the petitioner no.1 had taken friendly loan of Rs.8,00,000/- from the informant which has already been returned by him to the informant but due to ulterior motive, the present case has been lodged.
